

those teachers coming in from outstate, and even though it does fill a gap that Senator Bohlke was talking about that I can certainly see, there is no real intent on the body's part to really go after all of those people who work very closely with children. It is just a very, very small group. There is not any intent to do so, and I sometimes wonder, gee, as we are going to be riffing teachers and do a lot of things on the property tax side, we want to go this step, one step further as well, and kind of give a slap in the face. But I understand, this bill is going to pass. Senator Bohlke did me a personal favor by allowing the bill to be delayed so I could take care of some family business. I very much appreciated that, and because of that, I don't want to delay the bill any longer because, technically, the day I was gone, it would have moved to Final Reading, and with that I have withdrawn the amendment out of courtesy to Senator Bohlke, and I do, again, reiterate I appreciate her and her staff and Senator Hilgert for at least recognizing some of the concerns and working with us to make what I would consider a bad bill, what Senator Bohlke would consider a good bill, a little better and I appreciate the working relationship we developed on this issue. Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: You've heard the motion to advance LB 754A to E & R for engrossing. All in favor say aye. Opposed no. It is advanced. Before we go to the next item, I'd like to call the Legislature's attention to the north balcony. We have some visitors from Louisville Elementary School, 32 fourth graders and they are the guests of Senator Wehrbein, with their teachers. There is three parents and six visitors from Kansas City, one visitor from Toronto, and one from New Mexico. Would you all stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you. Mr. Clerk.
